Big Chief Borchers was pitted against Hartzell in the box and according to results should have beaten the Logan man out. Both pitched a remarkably good game, the big chief's support falling down on him at critical moments, while the Infants gave their man their undivided attention. Borchers was singled for five hits and Hartzell interviewed for six singles and a two bagviewed for six singles and a two bag-

Considerable Wrangling Done.

The game witnessed considerable wrangling on the part of the players on the decision of the umpire, but Large Richard came out on top of the pile in every kick. In the sixth, Horchers threw the ball to McNichols to catch Stucke napping off second. Stucke made a dive for the bag, and the cushion slid out of his reach after being struck by Stucke's foot. Richards called the man safe and the whole Wing team registered a kick. The rule book was referred to and after a prolonged discussion, the decision stuck and Captain Huston entered a protest, but con-

Another wrangle took place in the seventa when Borchers knocked a high fly to middle field. Stoney stood in position to eatch the ball and probably would have done so, had not the big chief as he was running to first disconcerted Stoney by yelling "I've got it." At any rate Stoney stepped aside and let the ball drop. Richards called Borchers out but Borchers said no and refused to leave first base. Umpire Richards pulled a watch and started to count time on the chief, when the latter yielded and went to the bench. The affair will be discussed in the presence of President Critchlow, but Richards carried the day while the game continued just the same.

The new schedule proposition was brought up, and discussed, and while a majority of those present were in favor of adopting one, yet if was not definitely decided to do so. However, Borchers and Horn were appointed a committee to have one in readlness to adopt at the meeting next saturday night, it, it that time, it should be decided best to call off the present schedule.

It is understood that Ogden was in favor of disbanding the league gilogether, but the other three clubs refused to come in on the deal, and it was upon this point that an adjournment took place.

The protested game of yesterday between Salt Lake and Logan came up for a long and spirited discussion, but it was finally decided that the game should go to Logan.

is off in this city for some time to come, and those who are most interested in the sport will be glad to hear it. Tom Reilly and Joe Cotten were notified yesterday by the management of the local athletic club that their match, scheduled to come off on July 27, had been declared off, and that the club would not attempt to pull off any more contests for some time. If this move had been made some time ago the sport would have been in better standing today.

Boxing contests in the summer time as a regular diet once a week are not a paying venture in any city, and it is unreasonable to expect that Sait Lake would stand for a regular thing of it. If ever is a sport was dead in any city boxing is here, and it will take strong efforts on the part of someone to revive it. It had resolved itself to a stage where every contest pulled off here was nothing more or less than a "meal ticket" affair, and the public had become thoroughly disgusted with the sport.

This state of affairs has been largely augmented by the rank fakes and raw deals that have been put before the public in the last phree month, under the guise of boxing contests. This is not only true of Ssit Lake, but also of the surrounding towns that have been handed some gold brick affairs lately.
